The names of the greater part of the Students who entered in the three preceding years, will be found on the Catalogue of those at present connected with the Seminary.

ERRATA. In the "Explanations," on the 2d page, for "Bowdoin College, Vt." read "Bowdoin College, Maine."

In the year 1812, for "Wm. A. M'Dowell," read "Wm. A. M'Dowell, D. D."

In the column headed "Remarks," opposite the name "Sylvester Eaton," in the year 1816, add "S. S. Buffalo, N. Y." Also, in the same column, in the year 1818, opposite the name "Nathaniel Conkling," for "Augusta, N. J." read "Frankfort, N. J." And also, in the same column, in the same year, opposite the name "Daniel Waterbury," for "Franklin, Del." read "Franklin, New-York."

In the column headed "In the Seminary," in the year 1818, opposite the name "Thomas M. Strong," for "7 months," read "1 year and 7 months."

NOTE. Doubtless, other errors will be detected; the Committee of Publication, however, hope to be pardoned, as they have been at no small pains to make the Catalogue correct.

VACATIONS.

There are two vacations, one from the Wednesday preceding the third Thursday of May, of six weeks. One from the last Wednesday of September, of six weeks; and a recess of two weeks in February.

N. B. As the course always commences in autumn, that time, consequently, is the most favorable for Students to enter the Seminary.
